NiviCap has been built to solve the real challenges Indian students and their families face when planning education in Australia. Karthik Srinivasan, Founder, NiviCap said, "We built NiviCap App, not just as a loan platform, but as a holistic, industry-led support system for students and their families." Justin Langer, former Australian cricket coach, supports NiviCap as its Brand Ambassador, resonating with the platform's values of guidance, reliability, and mentorship.
